Today in the stitching unit, we achieved clear precision with the 4 cm grid layout and completed an entire Kantha panel without major setbacks. Each craftsperson received a personalized portfolio file to archive their completed trial designs with meticulous care. This structured progress tracking transformed trial errors into visible milestones, instilling deep ownership, pride, and growing mastery across the team.

Confidence and ownership

Output

- 1 Kantha panel
- Personal portfolio files, one per craftsperson

Outcome

Confidence and ownership Craft precision (Kantha)

Clear precision on the 4 cm grid, and a whole Kantha panel completed without major setbacks.
